

Pet Evacuation Checklist

Provided by the Louisiana SPCA

Dogs

- ID tags (ID, rabies, microchip)
- Leash
- Collar
- Food and bottle water
- Food and water bowls
- Can opener if needed
- Crate or pet carrier
- Medications
- Vaccination records
- Current photo of your pet
- Veterinarian contact information
- Toys
- Treats
- Plastic bags for pet waste
- Paper towels and cleaning spray
- Muzzle if necessary
- First aid kit

Cats

- ID tags (ID, rabies, microchip)
- Collar
- Food and bottle water
- Food and water bowls
- Can opener if needed
- Crate or pet carrier
- Medications
- Vaccination records
- Current photo of your pet
- Veterinarian contact information
- Toys
- Treats
- Small litter box and litter
- Plastic bags for pet waste
- Paper towels and cleaning spray

- First aid kit

Snakes

- Food and bottle water
- Water bowl
- Pillow cases for transporting
- Small enclosure with lid
- Heating pad
- Small mammals in small carriers
- Bedding material
- Current photo of your pet
- Veterinarian contact information

Birds

- Food and bottle water
- Carrier with perch
- Water mister
- Current photo of your pet
- Veterinarian contact information
- Toys
- Treats
- Plastic bags for pet waste
- Paper towels and cleaning spray

Rabbits

- Food and bottle water
- Food and water bowls
- Small cage or pet carrier
- Bedding material
- Current photo of your pet
- Veterinarian contact information
- Toys
- Treats
- Plastic bags for pet waste
- Paper towels and cleaning spray

For more information about how to prepare for your pets for hurricane season, visit www.nola.gov/ready or call 1-800-BE-READY. For more information about planning for an evacuation with your pet, visit www.la-sPCA.org/evacuation.